Andrea Kremer Named Featured Speaker for Women's Leadership Summit presented by Versant Health

THE COLONY, TX (November 5, 2020) – The Volunteers of America Classic – the only LPGA event in Texas - announces the speaker lineup for the Women's Leadership Summit presented by Versant Health to be hosted virtually December 1, 2020. In its second year, the Women's Leadership Summit is pleased to welcome an exciting lineup including Emmy award winning journalist Andrea Kremer; Myung Lee, President & CEO of Volunteers of America Greater New York; Amy Mann, SVP Human Resources, Versant Health, and LPGA pro Lizette Salas.

Held in conjunction with an official LPGA event, the Women's Leadership Summit will gather leaders from various industries to share their insights and perspectives on driving and leveraging adaptability. Throughout the program, attendees will have an opportunity to hear from these leaders on how they are adapting in their own careers, across their organizations and on the golf course.

"We are honored to once again bring the Women's Leadership Summit to our audience, and to provide a forum for an engaging discussion among business leaders and trailblazers," said Versant Health President & CEO Kirk Rothrock. "While we won't be in-person for this edition, the program will be relevant and powerful, and provide our guests with strategies to harness and use their own creativity and adaptability."

Registration for groups and individuals to attend the Women's Leadership Summit is currently open, visit www.voaclassic.com/wls to purchase tickets. Follow the conversation online and on social media using #VOAClassic and #VersantHealthWLS.

The Women's Leadership Summit will take place on Giving Tuesday, a day where millions of people nationwide support outstanding nonprofit organizations through financial contributions. This year, Versant Health is encouraging donors to support Vision To Learn - an exceptional organization that helps kids in more than 325 cities across the U.S. get the eye exams and glasses they need to succeed in school and in life. Throughout December, Versant Health will provide a matching donation to gifts made to Vision To Learn through <https://visiontolearn.org/versant/>.
