Tickets to go on sale February 7 for the 2018 Volunteers of America LPGA Texas Classic

What: Tickets for the 2018 Volunteers of America LPGA Texas Classic will go on sale Wednesday, February 7. Previously the Volunteers of America Texas Shootout, the 2018 event will take place at Old American Golf Club in The Colony May 2 – May 6, 2018. 2017 Champion Haru Nomura is expected to return to defend her title.

This is the sixth consecutive year the Volunteers of America LPGA Texas Classic will be held in the DFW Metroplex, but the first year held in The Colony at the Old American Golf Club.

“We’re excited to shine a spotlight on the exceptional facilities and course of the Old American Golf Club. This course is unlike any other on the LPGA Tour today,” shares Volunteers of America President and CEO, Mike King. “It is sure to be a unique challenge for the LPGA Tour pros and provides stunning views of Lake Lewisville that golf fans of North Texas are really going to enjoy.”

In addition to a new host course, new fan experiences and engagements are expected to be announced soon.
